Completion Of Water System Planned

LAC LA BICHE—The Town of Lac la Biche is looking about at the work still to be done in regard to completing the waterworks system this spring. Extension of the disposal field is still necessary and that will require an additional sum of money. Besides that, the installing of service connections from the main distribution system to the properties at public expense has created a further need. However, more consumers accepted the water services and entered the general agreement to become water users immediately. The water became available from the system February 7 and within a few days most of the consumers were getting the benefit at their taps.

Supplementary borrowing is limited in amount and require the usual vote of the ratepayers after the amount of the borrowing has been approved by the Board of Public Utilities.

Commonwealth Mourns Queen Mary

Four generations of the commonwealth were familiar with Queen Mary—first as the Duchess of York, then as Queen, then as Queen Mother, and then as Dowager Queen. Raised in the Victorian era, she became a symbol of the dignity of the age. She was known as kindly yet unyielding, gracious but reserved. Some of the highlights of her 84 years included her marriage to Duke of York in 1893; their coronation in 1911 and celebration of their silver jubilee in 1935. To many Britons she, more than any other, was the true symbol of Britain's monarchic continuity.

Honors Ukrainian Born Slave

SPRUCE VALLEY—On Sunday, March 22, a Ukrainian Concert was held in the Spruce Valley Hall. This concert was in honor of Taras Shewchenko.

Taras Shewchenko (1814-1861) was born as a slave—a serf! During his lifetime he wrote many poems in Ukrainian. He made many Ukrainian paintings and also wrote several poems, plays, most of his novels and his diary in Russian. Many of his paintings and drawings have survived.

Midway between Toronto and Hamilton there is an 18-acre park.

At the far end of the park there stands a monument of Taras Shewchenko. In the park there is also a public museum. This was all erected in 1951. To many Canadians—those of Ukrainian origin—the monument is the very familiar face of Taras Shewchenko.

The actors in the concert were very beautifully dressed in Ukrainian costumes.

That night the crowd was tops. People from as far as Boyle, Lac la Biche and Ellsboro came out to see and hear this concert.

Mr. John Klibenowski from Edmonton was the guest speaker. After seeing the concert well-performed, Mr. Klibenowski invited the actors to come out to Edmonton with the concert. They plan to go soon.

BOYLE SEED FAIR TO DRAW RECORD ENTRY; AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY DOES BIG JOB

IMPROVED QUALITIES of seed, such as that quality striven for by exhibitors at the Boyle and District Annual Seed Fair, are required to make the modern methods of farming, as shown above, pay-off in higher returns.

Agricultural Society Promotes Better Farming

BOYLE—Since the re-organization of the Athabasca District Agricultural Society some four or five years ago, the body has made exceptionally good progress in promoting better farming methods and maintaining a very keen interest in agriculture throughout the year. In addition to the annual Boyle Seed Fair, other annual functions are held—functions with an element of competition to them. There is the annual mid-summer stock show held at Athabasca, the yearly plowing match held in the Colinton district, and the bench show which each fall draws a great deal of interested farm folk to Perryvale.

The society is to be commended highly for their efforts to follow up the Provincial Agriculture Department's policy of improving farming methods, improving the quality of farm produce, and in heightening the appeal of farming as an occupation.

Much of the success of the Agricultural Society in the Athabasca district is due to the District Agriculturist Mr. George Godel who works tirelessly to improve farming in the district, and who takes a keen interest in promoting such functions as seed shows, stock shows, plowing matches and bench shows.

With the continued high interest of farmers in the district in these events, and with their continued co-operation, it should not be many years before Athabasca and district have a series of agricultural exhibitions which for quality of entries, and number of entries per farming acre, will rank with the finest in the Dominion.

Boyle Seed Fair Of Great Interest

BOYLE—If early interest is any indication this year's annual Seed Fair at Boyle promises to be an outstanding success. Following last year's highly successful beginning fair, this year's must reach a fairly high standard to maintain a steady degree of progress.

Stringent regulations last year limited the number of entries possible, but the attendance at the fair showed that district farmers were keenly interested. This year, with the relaxation of some of the rules and regulations it is expected that upwards of 200 entries will be received.

Co-sponsors of the fair are the Boyle Board of Trade and the Athabasca District Agricultural Society with the idea in mind to encourage farmers to plant better seed, thus improving their crops, and improving agriculture as a whole.

Provincial Government Agriculture officials lend their approval to the fair, and they contribute up to fifty per cent of the prize money.

Added attractions for the farmers during the fair will be a series of lectures, several movies, and addresses by Henry Young, the president of the Farmer's Union of Alberta, and a number of other speakers. The lectures planned will be on such subjects as Grain Marketing, Farm Planning, and Toad Flax Control.

Out of respect to the late E. S. Parson, former president of the Athabasca District Agricultural Society, the festival of entertainment planned for the evening of the fair has been cancelled.

Initiated First District Seed Fair

BOYLE — With the death of Mr. E. S. Parson of the Boyle district last week, agriculture lost one of its most outstanding figures in Alberta.

Mr. Parson, a resident of the district for more than 40 years, strove hard to improve farming methods for most of his life. As a result of his efforts, he proved up one of the most productive farms in the area, and in 1950 he was chosen as one of the Master Farmers.

As president of the Athabasca District Agricultural Society, Mr. Parson was instrumental in promoting the Boyle Seed Fair, the Athabasca Stock Show, the Bench Show in Perryvale, and the Plowing Match at Colinton.

Holding an office as councillor for the M.D. of Athabasca, as well as being an officer in several agricultural groups, Mr. Parson's influence was felt keenly, and his experience proved to be of exceptional worth in all functions in which he took part. His presence in Athabasca will be sadly missed.

Board Of Trade Is Active Body

BOYLE—Spearheading numerous worthwhile activities in Boyle and district is the Board of Trade. Headed by an aggressive executive, this group has already underway a number of plans for improving the town's facilities.

A piece of property has been purchased and set aside as a playground park which will look after such summer social events as annual picnics, and such popular athletic events as baseball tournaments.

Plans too are in the early stages to erect, with the help of the Lions Club a curling rink in the not too distant future.

At present, the Board of Trade on this property has a skating rink, the property was donated to the skating rink committee, and the Board of Trade helped to finance the well which is the rink's source of water supply.

Plans are already underway to have the ratepayers petition the Provincial Government for incorporating the hamlet. Spearheading this drive is the Board of Trade again. Since this will be the fourth time such a petition has been sent up, it is hoped that this time it will be successful.

Incorporating the town has several advantages which will improve the jurisdiction and permit a more orderly growth.

Only recently the Board elected a new slate of officers to carry out further the plans and work done by the earlier executive who did such an excellent job. New members are Mr. Lopushinsky, president, who takes over from Mr. Bolton, and Mr. Semenuik as secretary-treasurer will carry on from Mr. Andraski.

Backing as they do all enterprises beneficial to Boyle, the Board of Trade is a hundred per cent back of the annual Seed Fair, and they solicit the co-operation and interest of all the farmers and citizens of Athabasca M.D. in making this year's Annual Boyle Seed Fair an outstanding success.

Roger Croutze motored from the city over week-end to visit his folks. He was accompanied by a very charming young lady, whom we understand has a very good voice. Roger says that we will be hearing more of his friend's singing. All who heard her sing in Atmore on Sunday are inclined to agree.

Rock and Lawrence Grenier, who had been employed by Pollock Bros. saw mill since early fall, are back home.

Mrs. Jos. Duigou is in the city for medical treatments. She is wished a very speedy recovery.

HOW much have automobile insurance rates increased?

- In relation to other car costs they've gone down. Each $100 of insurance carried takes a smaller portion of the motorist's dollar than ever before.
- But cars are more expensive. You can't insure the $2,400 car of today as cheaply as the $850 car of 1939.
- So, in dollars, how much have auto rates gone up? An average of 30% for Public Liability and Property Damage. An average of 60% for full coverage.

WHAT affects the cost of automobile insurance?

- The number of accidents
- The average cost of accidents
- The costs of doing business
- The profit or loss of the insurance company

WHY have rates gone up in dollar cost?

- Because accident rates have been soaring. Today one person is killed every four hours in Canada — one person is injured every fifteen minutes — a fender is smashed every two minutes.

- Because accident costs have been soaring.

A wrecked car costs two to three times as much to replace as in 1939 — a damaged car costs twice as much to repair — those fenders every two minutes cost three times as much.

- Because medical and hospital costs have increased an estimated 165%. The bill for injuries is the highest in history.
- Because average Canadian earning power is up 150%. That means higher payments to settle "lost time" claims.

THEN HOW have insurance companies kept rates from going much higher?

- By cutting operating costs. Overhead is higher but operating costs per vehicle have been slashed.
- By losing money. Auto insurance companies paid out $65,000,000 in claims last year. They lost $6,300,000 doing it.

THE REMEDY

- Reduce accidents. When the accident rate goes down — unless the cost of each accident goes 'way up — insurance rates will go down too. Competition makes that certain.

REMEMBER —

The accident that doesn't happen never costs anybody a dime.

What Do You Think?

What is your reaction when you are asked to contribute your share to the 1953 Cancer Crusade of the Canadian Cancer Society?

Do you say: "Another appeal on top of all the endless appeals of this past year?"

Or do you think of Bill Jones or Mary Smith in your neighborhood who is living today because of the phenomenal advances in surgery, in research, in medicine, made possible by the dollars you have given to this great cause?

Or do you recall the seven danger signals which the Canadian Cancer Society has been urging you to memorize throughout the years and realize that this knowledge may be responsible for the saving of your life or the life of someone dear to you?

Not only in the raising of money alone—certainly needed now more than ever—but in the opportunity it affords to alert you and yours to the challenge of cancer and the possibilities of licking it, is Cancer Control Month worthwhile.

Think of the part you can play in this fight. Write a generous check for the Canadian Cancer Society and help fight cancer.

The Royal Farms

The royal farms at Windsor, covering 650 acres of former parkland, are being streamlined in accord with current emphasis on more food at lower cost.

A new feature is a herd of attested Ayrshire cows, yielding 150 gallons of milk daily. There is also a herd of 40 pedigree attested Jersey cattle.

All cattle on the royal farms have been dehorned. As calves are born, their horn buds are treated painlessly to arrest development.

One reason for dehorning is the practice of turning cattle into straw yards at night to ensure that milk maintains a high standard of purity. Advocates of dehorning have been encouraged by the royal example. Some cattle breeding societies have announced that absence of horns will not prejudice show chances.

The Windsor farms also house 1,000 Sussex Rhode cross poultry, kept in covered yards with night lighting to aid egg production in winter. Average yield in the last four months has been 60 per cent.

Food produced goes to royal residences. The surplus is sold commercially.

A Stubborn Man

It seems that the gentleman knew what he wanted: he wanted a ride in a ship across the seas back to his old home. He advertised for it to the limit of his ability and got the ride. Firm? Robinson Crusoe, not inc.

The first ad cost him his shirt for he hung it up on a pole, stuck it on the top of his island, and let the wind flap it.

He changed his copy as one garment after another frayed out, pants, undershirt, old bedding, then anything that would flap and wave. A persistent, stubborn cuss, an advertising man, I guess.

Circulation was slender as could be. Readers were busy elsewhere. But R. C. not inc. knew advertising, and he kept his signals flying. He knew they'd know and understand and believe if they ever did read his ad.

And then one day they did see it, read his ad, landed and brought old Crusoe back to civilization and an eternal reading of his adventures with Friday. But, listen, just suppose he'd said: "Advertisin's no good," after he had lost his pants! Gosh!

The "Christ" In "Christian"

By T. W. PUE

As we approach Good Friday, Easter and the end of the Lenten Season, it is a good idea to reflect on our personal status in the Christian faith.

Nominally accepting the Christian way of life, some self-styled intellectuals reject acceptance of the Person of Jesus Christ. Somehow or other, they would like to expel Christ, the founder, from the Christian Church.

As a matter of historical fact, the Church was called Christian after Christ, and Jesus was called Christ as the "anointed one" of God Almighty. Still, these "intellectuals" say that Jesus was a mere man, wise and good, but nothing more.

Some of them acknowledged that he was a great teacher and rank him with Buddha, Mohammed, Confucius and Moses. A few even claim that no such Person as Jesus Christ ever lived, and that the entire structure called Christianity is founded upon a myth.

While refusing to believe the Scriptures to be of divine origin, some of these educated people embrace Christianity because they feel that its mortal laws are good for society.

"The service of the Christian religion," declared one of these doubters, "and my own faith in essential Christianity, would not be diminished one iota if it should in some way be discovered that no such individual as Jesus ever lived." They are, in other words, willing to accept Christ's religion—but not Christ Himself.

It is ridiculous, of course, to suggest that the Christian faith is the religion of the ignorant. For millions of educated people . . . and many of the world's most distinguished scholars, philosophers and scientists . . . have been devout Christians. But discounting this fact, there is abundant evidence to support the Christian teaching concerning Jesus.

It is to be found in the Four Gospels, in which the real Jesus is revealed to us. "But," argue some educated unbelievers, "you are assuming that the Four Gospels are an authentic recording of the life and teaching of Jesus Christ. We refuse to believe this."

The "intellectuals" are, of course, being anything but intellectual in taking this position. For there is more abundant proof of the genuineness of the Gospels than there is to support other historical records which scholars accept without question. References to and quotations from the Four Gospels date back as far as the first century of the Christian era . . . are found in writings contemporary with the Apostles and the first Christians.

Grain Handlers' Strike

At the end of March, the strike of 250 terminal elevator employees at Vancouver had gone six weeks. A representative of the federal department of labor had failed to reach a settlement satisfactory to both sides.

The terminal employees have been under the impression that farmers are favoring their side. Such is not the case in Alberta at least. Farmers in this province realize that the cost-of-living has gone down 7 points this past year while the cost of goods and services they have to buy is on the increase.

The Economic Annalist, published by the federal department of agriculture, notes that between January, 1952, and September of the same year there was a decline in farm prices of 34.4 points. The decline in the prices of animal products was 49.1 points and field products 26.1 points.

In the same period the cost of the commodities and services used by farmers rose 6.8 points.

Early Lake Opening Predicted

Predictions are being made that the shipping season on the Great Lakes will open much earlier than usual this year. Ice along the shores of Lake Superior and in the harbors of Fort William and Port Arthur is much thinner than normal and the lower lakes are almost free of ice and are navigable at the present time. Ice breaking operations should be well underway this week to permit shipping. Last year the first sailing from Port Arthur was April 4, and the year before it was on April 11. Average for the past 15 years has been April 11.

With the strike on at the Coast, grain has been pouring into the lakehead terminals and by the opening date they should be filled to capacity. In February stocks in store totalled about a million bushels more than at the same time last year.

GIVE TO THE CANCER CRUSADE!

Voice of the People

FOR CHILDRENS SAKE

The Board of Directors of the Edmonton Home for Ex-service-men's Children, wish to thank you for the manner in which you wrote up the story of the Home and its work in your paper.

FL/O Beasleigh of the R.C.A.F. Edmonton Station, contacted the Home recently, and it was through his effort that the material was sent to you, and we thank you for the prominence you gave the story, in your paper.

We thought it may interest you to know that a fifteen year old boy who was in residence in our Home from October 1952, until January 1953, while visiting at St. Albert saw the story and writes as follows:

Dear Mrs. Peterson:

While visiting over the weekend at St. Albert, I read the St. Albert Gazette, and I saw the article about the Home for Ex-service-men's Children. I was very glad to see that you got some of your well deserved praise, and also that someone else thinks of the Home. It made me realize that the title "Home" really applies to your place.

Yours Truly,

Joe LaRose

Needless to say, we were awfully proud of this boy's letter, and it makes us feel that it has really been worth while, because when a young boy like that writes in, on his own initiative, one knows it comes right from the heart.

Again thanking you I remain Sincerely yours,

J. E. Peterson

CALLS PROSPERITY FALSE

Government economists are advising businessmen that they need have no economic qualms for 1953. They say defence spending to continue rising. We know the present unsettled conditions throughout the world make it necessary to prepare for war; but it ought to be self-evident to these same businessmen that this kind of industrial activity does not add to the wealth of the nation. We have turned from an economy of peace to an economy of war, and the handwriting on the wall spells economic collapse.

DAILY SMITH.

KILL THE COYOTE

All this talk about coyotes to kill mice and gophers. So what!

Some years ago coyote pelts were in demand and a lot of trappers, experienced and otherwise, were out to trap all they could for profit. Coyotes were scarce but the rodent population was not above normal.

In 1951 coyote pelts were worthless and with no trapping done they increased at an alarming rate—and so incidentally, did the mice population.

It is obvious that the mouse population is not influenced by the coyotes but increases and decreases in an independent cycle.

Predatory birds will take care of the mice. Let us take care of our sheep and poultry, and protect our game birds and other desirable wild life by killing the coyote. By doing this we'll also be controlling the present rabies epidemic.

LETTERS TO LOUISA

Dear Louisa,

I am planning to be married this winter and I would like to keep on working for a year so that I can buy some furniture for the home we are building.

I have a good job and my husband's salary will take care of us and the house but leaves nothing for the things we would like to have. We both want a family but I would like to work for a year.

My mother thinks this is a mistake as she says if a wife starts working, her husband expects her to keep on.

What do you think?

Answer:

I see no reason why you should not work until you start a family and, particularly so, if it means a lot of things for your home that both you and your husband would like to have.

LOUISA

Dear Louisa,

I want to buy a washing machine and have enough for a down payment, but my husband always likes to pay cash for everything he gets.

We can meet the monthly payments and I have two small children and do my own work.

Don't you think he could break his rule this once?

Mother.

Answer:

I think it would probably pay him in the long run to break this rule this time, for if you do all your work and the laundry for your family, you certainly need anything that will make it easier for you. Sometimes doctor bills for over-worked mothers amount to more than the price of a mechanical household aid.

Louisa.

One day some years ago I went to Edmonton on the CNR train from Calahoo. I took my little girl aged four years along with me. As we were waiting in the train that evening to come home, the fireman let quite a lot of steam from the engine which made a lot of noise. My little girl said, "Now Mamma, the train has a flat tire and we won't get home tonight."

THE LIGHTER SIDE

Confused Youngsters

The Lord's Prayer has had to withstand a great deal of mumbling and confusion, especially from children trying to learn it from poor enunciators, or, from muttering crowds.

One little boy was heard to pray, "Harold be Thy name." Another begged, "Give us this day our jelly bread." A New York child petitioned, "Lead us not into Penn station."

Brainy Gal

"Is my girl friend clever! She's got brains enough for two."

"Then she's just the girl you ought to marry."

Of Course

"I tell you, old friends are best."

"That's right! Just try to think of a new friend that has stood by you as long as the old ones?"

Good If He Can Do It

A tough drill sergeant ordered every man in the squad to hold his left leg straight out in front of him. By mistake, one rookie held up his right leg, which brought it out to his neighbor's left leg.

"Okay," shouted the hard-boiled sergeant, "who's the wise guy holding up both legs?"

Boys and Gals

The old man neglected to assist his wife out of the street car.

"John," she said, "you are not so gallant as when you were a boy."

"No," he replied, "and you're not so buoyant as when you were a girl, either."

A Considerate Debtor

"That man with the bill is here again, sir."

"Tell him—ah—tell him I've gone to the funeral of a rich relative from whom I expect to receive a lot of money. The poor devil has been here so many times I feel I ought to say something encouraging."

Impossible

"Have you cut my hair before?" asked the man with the accumulated growth on his head. "No, sir," replied the village barber. "I've only been out of service four months."

Absolutely Right

Two children were talking. "Know how to tell a lady worm from a gentleman worm?" one asked.

"Oh, sure," said the other. "You've heard that a worm turns. Well, if it turns without putting out its hand, it's a lady worm."

Diet Of Wood And Metal Is Fatal To Ostrich

This is the obituary of Jumbo, a 250-pound ostrich that came to the Edmonton zoo in August, 1949, and started on his way surely and steadily to death in the traditional manner of zoo ostriches.

Zoologists and veterinarians aware of the eating habits of ostriches, weren't surprised at what the post-mortem examination of Jumbo revealed.

One by one of the contents of the feathered glutton's gizzard were lined up. The final count: 5 pennies, one dime, five keys, several odd-shaped pieces of wood, numerous bits of scrap metal and a large table-spoon.

The spoon was responsible for the internal haemorrhage that delivered the death blow. That was the verdict of Dr. C. H. Bigland of the provincial poultry diseases division, who presided over the post-mortem, and Dr. William Rowan, head of the University of Alberta's zoology department, who has sat in on ostrich autopsies before.

If the Edmonton zoo buys another ostrich the bird may be put in a glass cage with a sign reading: "Please don't throw stones at this cage. If it breaks, the ostrich will eat it."

CHAS LEBAS

Says...

"IF A BIRD IN THE HAND IS WORTH TWO IN THE BUSH—HOW MUCH IS A FULL STORAGE TANK WORTH IN A BUSY SEASON?"

Now is a good time to have that storage tank full of Imperial Tractor Fuels. Then you'll be able to go full steam ahead when you start to get busy.

If you don't have a storage tank... see someone who has. He'll tell you it's a fast, safe and convenient way of storing and handling gasoline. He'll tell you, too, that getting a storage tank was one of the smartest moves he ever made. And when you get your tank, it'll be a smart move to get it filled with Imperial Tractor Fuel.

You Hear Strange Things About Catholics

Yes, you can hear some strange things about Catholics.

You hear it said that Catholics believe all non-Catholics are headed for Hell... that they believe non-Catholic marriages are invalid.

Some think Catholics believe the Pope is God... that he can do no wrong... that they owe him civil allegiance and that he should have the political power to rule America.

It is said that Catholics want religious freedom only for themselves... that they oppose public schools and separation of Church and State as evils which should be destroyed.

The claim is made that Catholics pay the priest for forgiveness of their sins... that they must buy their departed relatives and friends out of Purgatory... that they adore statues... are forbidden to read the Bible... use medals, candles and holy water as sure-fire protection against the loss of a job, lightning or being run down by an automobile.

But what is worse, some say, Catholics corrupt the true teachings of Jesus Christ with the addition of pagan superstitions and practices that are nothing less than the inventions of the devil.

If all these things—or any of them—were true, it would be a pity. For at least two out of every five Canadians are Catholics—and it would be a national tragedy if forty per cent of all Canadians entertained such erroneous ideas.

The Knights of Columbus is an organization of 700,000 Catholic men of reason and intelligence. In our ranks will be found statesmen, scientists, historians, physicians, movie stars, lawyers, educators and others representing every cross-section of Canadian life. And for each and all of them loyalty to the Catholic Faith is the act of a reasonable man.

We are deeply interested in the welfare of our Church and our Country. And we believe the interests of both will be served best when fair-minded people know the Catholic Church as it is—not as it is sometimes mistaken to be.

If you have heard and believed any of these false claims, and want the truth, we will gladly send you a free booklet which explains many aspects of Catholic belief and practice concerning which people are commonly misinformed. Write and ask for Pamphlet No. 1-N.

Machine-Made Profits Can be Yours, too

The key to bigger farm profits is a higher yield from your land and livestock. This generally means more manpower. But today, farm labour is both scarce and costly. This makes it necessary to investigate more economical methods. The answer is found in modern farm machinery and equipment. Many farmers do not have the considerable amount of cash needed for such an investment. Here is where Imperial Bank can help. It has always been ready to help enterprising farmers increase the production and profits of their farms by lending them money for such purchases.

A Farm Improvement Loan or Loans up to $3,000 can be obtained from your local Imperial Bank. You have up to seven years to pay it back depending on the amount borrowed and the purpose for which the money is to be used, with simple interest of 5%.

When purchasing a tractor or other equipment, be careful to select the right type and size for your farm. Make sure there is enough work for a machine, so that it will pay for itself and cover the cost of depreciation.

Loans for the purchase of farm implements may be obtained up to an amount of two-thirds of the cash price of the implement purchased.

Your Imperial Bank manager is always glad to discuss your financial problems with you. Drop in and have a chat with him.*

* Imperial Bank Farm Improvement Loans may also be obtained for the purchase of livestock, construction, repair or alteration of farm buildings or for any other worthwhile farm improvement.

Boarders Win League Bowling Title

LAC LA BICHE—The Men's Bowling League has finally reached play-off time, after a best-of-three series had to be waged between Boarders Ltd. and Varze's Cleaners. Boarders took two games straight and ended up champions of the regular play. Thursday, March 19, will feature an all-round play-off card with Boarders vs. Hayward Lumber, Cleaners vs. Northland, NAR vs. Flyers, and Massey-Harris vs. Paterson's. All of these being best-of-three sets.

Ernie Courtney of NAR is on top of the individual averages, with Michael Hryb a close second. Courtney has 201 and Hryb 200. However, play-off averages will be counted separately, at which time it should be discovered who can really bowl when the chips are down.

JUNE, 1911. Following the death of King Edward VII, Princess Victoria Mary is crowned with the Duke of York in Westminster Abbey to become Queen Mary, Queen Consort of King George V.

IN HER CAR, Queen Mary, always thoughtful of others, sits upright on a raised seat, clearly in view at her car window so that people can see her.

AFTER DUNKIRK, Queen Mary meets the survivors — eager to take her part in the war effort — encouraging men and women in the services — visiting those suffering from war injuries and bombing.

SEPTEMBER, 1934. Not a frequent speaker, Queen Mary makes one speech that is well recorded. "I am very happy to name this ship Queen Mary, and I wish success and good luck to all who sail in her."

1914-1918. Queen Mary courageously carries out arduous public duties, visiting hospitals, promoting women's part in national service.

Remembering a Great and Gracious Lady

Queen Mary, Queen Consort of George V, grandmother of our present Queen Elizabeth II is dead. She was in truth, a great and noble Queen who enriched by her high example the people of a world-wide commonwealth and empire. Constant in her devotion to duty throughout a long lifetime she was kind, courageous—good in the highest sense. She wore her crown with matchless grace. She is deeply mourned.
